

Volunteers can be team mangers. One person can have different roles and teams can also be mixed. It depend on how big the events are and the practical measures. But its very important that the producer team has clarify who has the responsibilities for the teams and tasks. Project must be included in the organization. There can be a project leader or supervisor. In this example the Camp from Norway with a Musical supervisor/director. Project can have separate economic budget and account.

*Manager = team leader who is member of the producer/working team
